

DEPICT STORM IN TONES

POLLY AND HER PALS—ASHUR'S RUNNING NO RISK

By Cliff Sterrett

WHO Be Feature of Composition Played at Stumm Recital.

A picture of a storm, in a composition entitled "Grand Fantasia in E Minor," will be the "piece de resistance" at the public organ recital at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon. This composition, which is by the famous Belgian organist Jacques Lemmens, is a masterpiece of art. It is a tempest ever composed for organ and shows the full heat and quiet before the tempest, the increasing disorder of the wind, rain and thunder, and then goes into peaceful pastoral as order is restored. Ernest Prang Stumm played the selection with such success last year that a repetition has been asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeland P. Harrington, basso and contralto singers, will sing. Numbers will be as follows: Organ solo, "March in F. on a Theme by Handel" (Guilmant); "Erlkönig" (Harter), "Caprice in B. Flat" (Handel), "Cuckoo" (Heart Feat His Flock) (Handel); "California Suite" (Dibble), composed of "Through an Orange Grove," "El Camino Real," "In a Mission Cloister"; "From a Mountain Top"; bass solo, "The Earth is the Lord's"; "Jesus," by Harrington and duet, "Rejoice, O My Lord" (Schnecker); by Mr. and Mrs. Harrington; "Grand Fantasia in E Minor" (Lemmens).

The recital will commence at 3:30 o'clock.
